

Violin Lessons

In Beautiful Downtown Geneva
With Thom Zolghadr

What I Teach:

My Mission is to provide serious violin students with the opportunity to develop their capacity of understanding, appreciation, and performance while learning to ENJOY various styles of music.

Passion, dedication, & discipline are the basic building blocks from which the student will develop good habits that can apply towards not only music, but also life.

-Proper/Correction of Technique

-Strong Emphasis on scales, intonation, tone, and control

-Catered to the specific needs of the pupil

-Never rushed, as much time as needed will be spent on material

-CONFIDENCE!

-Aid/Tutoring in school orchestra repertoire

-Includes Interpretation

-Technical Work

-Proper Conduct and Maximizing Performance Capabilities

-Tips for In-Class work

-Personal Interest

-Work with pop/jazz music and ear training to create a more self-sufficient player

-Improvisation where applicable

Contact me at:

Mobile: (555) 555-5555

E-Mail: Tzolghadr@hotmail.com